5. GLC) Met with Representative Dante Fascell (D., Fla.) in response to his request to discuss the letter we had received from the Library of Congress regarding information on Agency investigators and the 25X1 training given to them. (See Memo for the Record for details.) 3.6
said he did not want this confirmed or denied but would like to know anything that we could tell him about I am looking into this. 25X1 6. JMM) Talked to Ken Belieu Deputy Assistant I a a arroa to rion Donne Absigiant to the President for Congressional Relations, regarding the Ervin bill, S. 782, and the possibility of his contacting Subcommittee members on our behalf.
He seemed to think word from the White House might be effective in the cases of Senators Hruska, Thurmond and Byrd (W., Va.) and indicated he would call them.
7. JMM) Talked to Dale Grubb, Special Assistant to the President, regarding the Ervin bill and explained our problem, and told him we had been in touch with Ken BeLieu but would appreciate any follow-up action on Grubb's part. I suggested he might get the background papers we had previously given BeLicu and call me if he had any further questions. He indicated appreciation of our problem and a willingness to assist.
8. JMM) Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations of Senate Government Operations Committee, called to say Senator Jackson and "3 or 4 other members" of the Armed Services Committee who are carrying the ball in the Safeguard debate in executive session, would like an up-to-date briefing on the world situation and on Soviet strategic weapons at 2:30 P. M. tomorrow. She said she and Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff, Senate Armed Services Committee, would also attend and also possibly one officer from Labor Frank attendants attend and also possibly one officer from John Foster's office in DefenseBob Wiser. After checking with the Director, I called her and confirmed that we could provide the briefing (Messrs. Duckett, Bruce Clarke and but would appreciate her excluding the Defense representative, which she said could easily be done.
